GETTING STARTED: HOW TO ACCESS & LOGIN

USERNAME & PASSWORD

Your username is your Student ID # (the long number)

Your password is your 4 digit cafeteria PIN

*If this does not work or you need to request a Destiny account, please contact Ms. Inverarity or have your teacher email her your first and last name along with both numbers.

DESTINY & DESTINY QUEST ONLINE

Use this URL to access Destiny Quest on a computer or iPad in any web browser:

http://destiny.turnerusd202.org

Then select the following:

→ Turner Middle School (first selection on the right)
  → Login (upper right hand corner)

You can also access Destiny through a link on the Turner USD 202 website:

→ Our Schools
  → Turner Middle School
  → Students
    → Library (link on the left menu, not on the main page)
    → Destiny link on the top of the page
DESTINY QUEST APP

The first time opening the Destiny Quest app you will need to follow these steps:

Enter the server: http://destiny.turnerusd202.org

→ Select “Connect”
  → Select “Turner Middle School”
  → Enter username and password

About the Destiny Quest App:

Think of this as your account manager. It will allow you to browse regular books, put them on hold, view what you have checked out, due dates, overdue notices, and it will allow you to create lists!

FOLLETT DIGITAL READER APP

The URL to access the Follett Shelf on an internet browser:

http://wbb32175.follettshelf.com

*Note: the best internet browser to read books online is Google Chrome (if this is not available Firefox, Safari, or Internet Explorer will also work)

The first time using the Follett Digital Reader you will need to follow these steps:

Enter “wbb32175” in the blank field

  → Enter your username and password

About the Follett Digital Reader App:

Think of this app as your download utility. It will allow you to download a checked out eBook so that you can read it more easily and without the internet!
TMS LIBRARY BOOKS (REGULAR TMS LIBRARY BOOKS)

THE BASIC RULES

- You may have up to 2 books at a time.
  - NOTE: English novels do not count against your total number of books!
- You may keep your book(s) for up to 2 weeks.
- When your books are overdue you’ll get a notification in Destiny Quest!
- If you aren’t finished with your book, just come in and show Ms. Inverarity your book and ask if you can renew it, this will give you an extra 2 weeks.
  - It is important that you show Ms. I the book, it is the only way of confirming that the book is indeed in use and not misplaced or stolen.

RETURNING LIBRARY BOOKS

- You can return library books any day during passing period. Just walk into the library and put it in the drop box!
- If your classes are all located far away from the library and you don’t think you will have time to make it up to the library, just give your book to your English teacher and they will make sure it gets returned to the library.

LOST AND OVERLY DAMAGED BOOKS

- If you are reading a book and you notice that there is something written in it, a page is torn, or the spine is coming loose, please tell Ms. Inverarity. You will not get in trouble! It is important to keep the books as well maintained as possible so they don’t completely fall apart.
- If you lose your book or it is destroyed to the point that nobody could ever read it (your dog ate the first 3 chapters), you will have two options:
  - You could pay whatever the original cost of the book was (this is always noted in Ms. Inverarity’s records on Destiny)
  - Or you could purchase a replacement copy of the book
TRAVEL SEMINAR DAYS

- You may travel to your TMS Library on travel seminar days. This is a privilege and Ms. Inverarity or any other TMS staff member may take this privilege away from you if you abuse it.

- You MUST get a zap stamp from Ms. Inverarity prior to your travel seminar. You can do this anytime you pass by the library during passing periods or before school. It is easiest if you have your planner out and turned to the appropriate day! You can even get a zap stamp a week in advance!
TYPES OF BOOKS

Note: Any time that I refer to a “call #” please keep in mind a call # may not actually have any numbers at all. The call # is the label on the book’s spine that tells you where the book belongs on the shelf. An example of a call # without any numbers would be: “FIC AVI” or “SC HAD.”

FICTION (FIC)

What:

The fiction section is where you will find all of your novels. Fiction means that it isn’t true. Books like A Child Called ‘It’ or The Upstairs Room will not be found in the fiction section because they are true.

Where:

The fiction section begins immediately after the first three “Featured Selections” bookcases in your TMS Library. Each fiction bookcase is marked with a sign. Fiction is organized alphabetically by the author’s last name and the signs will help guide you to the right shelf. If you are looking for a specific genre of fiction you can either search on Destiny or you can visit the Featured Selections shelves and see if there is something there that interests you.
STORY COLLECTION (SC)

What:

Story collections are multiple stories, often by multiple authors, contained within one book. They all have the call # prefix “SC.”

Where:

The story collection books are found at the end of the fiction section. They are marked with a sign. These books are a bit funny because sometimes they are organized by one author’s last name and other times they are organized by the book’s title. Since this section is small it is easy to browse for a book that interests you and if you need help finding a specific book, ask Ms. Inverarity for help.

SERIES WITH DIFFERENT CALL #S

What:

These books are pulled from where they would normally belong in the TMS library so that they may be found more easily. Most of them have a different call number because they are written by different authors. However, the Chicken Soup for the... Soul books have different call #s because they are about different subjects and so they fall into different Dewey Decimal categories.

Where:

These books are found at the end of the fiction section on the same bookcase as the story collections.

The following series are included here:

- Mary-Kate and Ashley
- Chicken Soup for the... Soul
- 39 Clues
- Bluford High
- Dear America book
BATTLE OF THE BOOKS

What:

These books were chosen for the Battle of the Books competition in previous years. All of the books for previous years are available for any student to checkout, even if you are not participating in Battle of the Books this year.

Where:

The Battle of the Books books are all found together near Ms. Inverarity’s desk. The shelf looks like it is behind the desk and may appear off limits, but they aren’t so please feel free to browse these shelves!

FEATURED SELECTIONS

What:

These are books that are pulled from their regular place in the library. There are here in case you don’t know specifically what you want to read but you do know a type of book you like to read. Each shelf has a sign and a QR code. If you aren’t sure what the sign means or you want to know more about the books found on a particular Featured Selections shelf, then you

Where:

When you walk in through the main library doors, the Featured Selections are the first three bookcases to your left. The immediately precede the fiction section. The location of a specific shelf may change and the variety that I have presented may change as well.

It is important to pay attention to Edmodo and participate in the polls that I put on there because this is how I will decide which shelves to keep and which shelves are less popular.
BIOGRAPHIES (92)

What:

Biographies are books about a person’s life. Collective biographies that are about more than one person are found within the nonfiction section and all of their call #s begin with “920.” Examples of collective biographies would be a book about famous female scientists or a book about a famous band. However, biographies about a singular person are shelved together and they all have a call # beginning with “92.”

Where:

Biographies are found on the three bookcases after the nonfiction section. The first bookcase has all of the biographies that are part of a larger series and the remaining biographies are organized alphabetically by the subject’s last name.

So, instead of thinking of who wrote the book, think of who the book is about. For example, a book about Anne Frank will have the call # “92 FRA.”

REFERENCE (REF)

What:

These books are not intended to be read from cover to cover. Reference books are what you would use if you just needed to find a specific piece of information or if you are learning about a new subject and you want a starting place. Dictionaries and encyclopedias are reference books.

Where:

The books found on the short shelf in between the couches and the green chairs are all reference books. These books are meant to stay in the library and cannot be checked out.
NONFICTION (DEWEY DECIMAL BOOKS)

What:

All of the books in your TMS Library that are sorted by Dewey Decimal are referred to as nonfiction. Nonfiction books are informative and based on fact. If there is a topic that interests you such as the Titanic, the Donner Party, WWII, or a particular person in history, this is where you will find these books. You will also find books about your favorite athletes and sports teams in this section.

Fiction in the nonfiction section:

There are instances where books that are truly considered fiction are shelved amongst the nonfiction. Examples of these:

- 468s:
  - Some of the books with this call # are fictional novels that are written in Spanish. This section is marked with a sign.
- 741.5: Graphic Novels
- 808s: Poetry

Where:

The books with Dewey Decimal call #s begin immediately after the Story Collection and Series w/different call #s book case. The beginning of the nonfiction section is marked with the sign “001-363.” At the end of the 600s the nonfiction section jumps across the room. The 700s begin on the bookcase near the computer nest and they are also marked with a sign.

At the end of the nonfiction section are two bookcases of 900s that are sorted alphabetically by subject. These are all series that have different call #s because they are about actually about different subjects, but since they are large series it is more convenient to organize them together. You will find book series about countries, states, and Native American nations here.
YOUR ACCOUNT

You can view your account information in Destiny or Destiny Quest via a web browser or you can view your account information in the Destiny Quest App.

The Follett Digital Reader will show you which eBooks you have checked out and which eBooks you have downloaded to your device. You can also view your eBook information on the Follett Shelf website.

On the following pages you will find screenshots of all of the different ways to view your account information!

PUTTING A BOOK ON HOLD

There are two different scenarios in which you will put a regular book on hold:

THE BOOK IS “OUT” (NOT AVAILABLE)

- You may put an unavailable book on hold at any time. This is a great way to make sure you are able to check out the book as soon as it becomes available.
  - Keep in mind that when you put the book on hold, there may be any number of students “in line” before you that have already put the book on hold. This is why it is so important to return your books on time!
- If you put a hold on an unavailable book and you change your mind before the book becomes available for you to check out, you may delete that hold yourself within Destiny. [screenshot coming soon]
- In this scenario with a hold on an unavailable book, once Destiny tells you the book is ready to pick up you may come pick it up without waiting for an Edmodo message.
- Holds on unavailable books expire after 60 days. This shouldn’t be an issue unless a student has not returned a book for 2 months or the book has been lost or was unaccounted for in last year’s inventory. If you have been waiting for a long time for a particular book, ask Ms. Inverarity if she could look up the book’s history for you.
- Once your book becomes available you will have 5 days to stop by the library and pick it up. If you can’t make it to the library have your seminar teacher email Ms. Inverarity and she will deliver the book to you.
THE BOOK IS “IN” (AVAILABLE)

- If you want to be able to quickly come by and pick up the book during your passing period, you can put the book on hold and then I will pull the book and have it ready and waiting for you to come pick up!
- Since the book is technically available, Destiny will automatically tell you that your book is “Ready.” However, this does not mean I have pulled it from the shelf for you and it does not mean that the book is checked out to you!
- If you put an available book on hold, you must wait until you receive a message from me in Edmodo telling you that the book is actually ready!
- Also, you will need to send me a message in Edmodo if you change your mind about a ready hold. You can only delete “pending” holds, I have to personally go into my requests and delete any “ready” holds.

PUTTING A HOLD ON AN EBOOK

- You may have up to two eBooks on hold at a time
- You will be alerted via a notification in Destiny Quest or when viewing the Follett Shelf that your book has become available
- You will have five days after your book becomes available to check it out to your account
- Unlike regular books, if you book becomes available but you no longer want it, you can simply check it out and then return it early!

To put a book on hold, select the book from the catalog and click the "Hold It!" button. To delete a hold, go to "My Info" in the DESTINY interface and access the hold details.
PUTTING A BOOK ON HOLD AND DELETING A HOLD IN DESTINY QUEST ONLINE:

1. Search for the book you want to put on hold.
2. Find the book in the library catalog.
3. Click on the 'Hold It!' button to put the book on hold.
4. Confirm the hold by clicking 'Save'.

To delete a hold:
1. Go to your 'My Holds' section.
2. Find the hold you want to delete.
3. Click on the 'Delete' button to cancel the hold.
EBOOKS

Your TMS Library currently has a total of 90 eBook Titles:

- 5 Protected English novels (aren’t available until that unit is over for the year)
- 20 Unlimited simultaneous access eBooks
  - These books are never unavailable. Every student and staff member could check out this same eBook and read it simultaneously and it would still be available.
  - These eBooks are all marked with a green infinity symbol
- 7 Single check out eBooks (only one copy each)
- 53 Classic eBooks (the number of copies for each of these varies)

FINDING EBOOKS

- You can search for eBooks by selecting “check out more books” while in the Follett Digital Reader.
  - Currently, since our eBook collection is so small, browsing through our different eBooks online at our Follett Shelf website is the easiest way to find an eBook.
- You may also set a material type limiter when searching in Destiny Online or Destiny Quest.

READING, CHECKING OUT, & DOWNLOADING EBOOKS

READING EBOOKS

- You will notice as you read different eBooks that each one has different features available. Play around with these features. Some eBooks will allow you to create notes, copy and paste, etc.!
- The audio feature, when available, is only accessible via computer
- Also notice that you can view your eBook one or two pages at a time.
CHECKING OUT & DOWNLOADING EBOOKS

- Regular eBooks have a 7 day checkout period
  - Please only check out one single checkout eBook at a time. When you have this type of eBook checked out, nobody else can read it until you return it!

- Unlimited eBooks have a 30 day checkout period
  - You can always check it back out since unlimited eBooks are always available. There is only a checkout period for report purposes.

- Once you check out an eBook it is important that you download it to your device if you are on your iPad!
  - Once it’s downloaded to your device you don’t need the internet to read that eBook, you simply open your Follett Digital Reader app and select the eBook from your shelf.
  - Since the internet isn’t being used when you are reading a downloaded copy, you are freeing up TMS internet usage and Follett’s servers!

- It is equally important that you move this eBook back online when you are finished with it so that you can return it. You will not be able to return an eBook until it is moved back online!

If you would like a manual on how to use a specific device at home to access your eBooks, please ask Ms. Inverarity and she will send you a pdf via Edmodo or she will print you out a hard copy if you do not take your iPad home.

There is an app out for smart phones that is similar to the Follett Digital Reader, but it is optimized for the phone’s screen size.

Please do not hesitate it ask Ms. Inverarity for help in using your personal device to access Destiny or the TMS Follett Shelf!
OTHER DESTINY FEATURES

CONNECTING WITH FRIENDS

This feature is only found when accessing Destiny Quest through a web browser. Unfortunately, at this time it is not yet available in the Destiny Quest app.

To connect with a friend you just need to start typing their name in the search field and then once you see their name listed, select the “send” button. Once they accept it you will be notified on your MyQuest updates. See the screenshots below for further guidance.

You can only connect with people that are in TMS. This includes teachers. If you connect to your teachers on Destiny Quest, they can recommend their favorite books to you! When you are connected with friends you will also be able to see the new reviews they post on your MyQuest updates.

It is important to note that you CANNOT connect with anyone through Destiny that is not within TMS. This feature is only available to TMS students and staff. This feature is secure and safe and does not violate any school or district policies regarding social media.
SCREENSHOT:

SENDING A FRIEND REQUEST
RECOMMENDING BOOKS

Please utilize this feature often! In Destiny Quest when viewing a book’s information you can select “recommend” and then either send it to one of the friends you are connected with or you can search for someone else in TMS.

This is also a great way for teachers to recommend books to you!

WRITING REVIEWS

STAR RATINGS:

1- “Poor”
2- “Fair”
3- “OK”
4- “Good”
5- “Awesome”

REVIEW:

Your review needs to include information that supports your star rating. It’s the “why” part. There are two main rules about writing reviews:

1) Do NOT include spoilers! You can describe some of the plot, but don’t say anything that will ruin the book for someone who hasn’t read it yet!

   For instance this would be okay:
   “This book is about a 12 year old boy that goes on an adventure with his dog. The boy encountered a lot of danger and the story was really fast-paced. At one point you don’t even know if the boy and his dog are going to survive!”

   However, this would not be okay:
   “This book is about a boy that goes on an adventure with his dog. The boy loses his dog while they are crossing a river and the boy encounters a lot of danger trying to find his dog, but don’t worry he survives! And at the end of the book he finds his dog safe and sound, so there’s a happy ending!”

2) Use appropriate language and make sure you are actually writing a review! All reviews have to be approved by me before they are posted. After you submit your review you will notice it will say “pending approval.” Once I have time to read your review I will either post it, edit it slightly before posting it, or I will delete it if it is inappropriate or not a book review. Any attempted abuse of the book review feature will result in consequences.

This book is one of my all-time favorites! I recommend this book to anyone who is a fan of dystopian fiction! It is also a part of a series that just came out with a fourth book so if you like this book, there will be more to read!

A very quick read that will leave you fully appreciating choice and DIVERSITY. A young boy must bear the burden of learning about life lived 'back back back' that the rest of his community has chosen to give up. But will he obey?
